CORRESPONDENCE.

. A QUERY. To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL.'

Hongkong, April 15. Sir,-A summous is applied for and granted under Ordinance 14 of 1845, Section 3, sub-section 7, against a watchman for being negligent and remiss in the execution of his duty. The Police Magistrate dismisses the case (the defendant ignoring the summons by not appearing) because a watchman is not a domestic servant. Can you please explain to me why a watchman cannot be prosecuted even if he is not a domestic servant !-- Yours, ENQUIRER.

[We have made personal enquiry into this case. Section 3, sub-section 7, says Every person employed as a private guard or watchman who shall sleep on his post or be negligent, remiss or cowardly in the execution of his duty' shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding 25. In this case, the watchman had not been negligent, remiss or cowardly. He left employment without giving notice; and there is no law in the Colony to punish other than domes-tic servants for this offence. Hence the dismissal of the summons. We can sympathise with * Enquirer, and as his is not the only case that has been before the Magistrate recently with a like result, it THE TIME FOR FINISHING THE appears to be time the Legislature moved

PARSEE CHARITY FUNDS.

To the Editor of the 'CHINA MAIL.' Hongkong, April 17.

Sir,-Animadverting to the correspondence which has recently appeared in your valuable paper on the above subject, may I be permitted to ask you, Mr Editer, how many in Hongkong are likely to be interested in the Parsee Charity Funds of this Colony ?

Most of your readers will, I think, agree that to discuss and settle any questions affecting the Parsec Community the proper place is the Meeting Room where most of the members meet annually and not the platform of public opinion, which might, only as a last resource, be appealed to, especially in dealing with a semi-private matter like the present.

In keenly following this correspondence, however, it must be clearly apparent to all, that, beyond the glaring fact of the writer's 833 great aim to air gratuitously his surprisingly beautiful composition, there is really little of public interest in it. Having said so much, I will, with your permission, venture a brief explanation as to why this question has been brought up at the present time. First, let me suggest. that those who begin to play with fire The Parsec Trust Funds, then, were originally invested in the hands of Messra H. gartlemen left the Colony, and their vacancies were, through the perfectly regular process of election at the Annual General exalted, position there were other candidates it is true, but, unfortunately, in the

REVIEWS. MISTRESS BARBARA CUNLIFFE. By Halliwell Sutcliffe. Unwin's Colonial Library, New Set, No. 104. Fisher Unwin, Paternoster Sq., E.C., 1901,

This delightful chronicle of the days, not very long ago, when the wool factories on the Eastern slopes of the Pennine Chain were in their infancy, and when the innovation was regarded with great disdain by the local gentry, will not full to give unalloyed pleasure to all who care for, a wellknik story. Very pathetic is the tardy revelation of Squire Canliffe's midnight woolcombing in order to help to pay the interest of the heavy mortgage on his estate. He is a splendid type of the old-world county magnate and gentleman, upright and fearlessly honest as the day, honoured by all. rich and poor alike, yet hiding an empty

To live for five months in such a spot as this, with a thermometer registering 1123 Fahr. in the shade, subsisting meanwhile on council beef, damper, and black tea, all of which had to be prepared in an old kerosene can, is surely disheartoning enough experience for any woman, To one born and brought up in a great city like Sydney such a life must have been simply unendurable, and so Mrs Summers found it. She continues: 'My health began to fail. I suffered | Teal continuously from nervous headache, and a dis- Tecrible ordered condition of the bowels. The latter Tweed performed their functions in a very irregular | Vestal manner, and a period of constinution would be | Waterwitch followed by diarrhes. The indigestion which I had contracted in Queensland became so severe that I positively dreaded food. The physicians at the Sydney Hospital were powerless to, relieve me, and it was thought I had not long to live. when a neighbour recommended Mother Saigel's Curative Syrup. I took her advice, but for the first few days derived no benefit. Soon afterwards, however, I noticed a change for the better, so continued its use, though I emmot remember how many bottles I took, but this I can say : that within six months Mother Seigel's Carativo Scrup restored me to a thoroughly healthy condition.

Grander testimony than this it would be hard to find. Mrs Summers' experiences in Quaensland are such as fall to the lot of few women. but countless women have suffered the same shricked, and so did the children, while my good tortages as she was called upon to endureman endeavoured to find the matches, which, of which arise from an infinite variety of causes, course, were mislaid. IN CRIMINAL SESSIONS. (Refore His Honour W. M. Goodman Chief Justice). Friday, 18th Apr 1, 1902.

BREACH OF BANISHMENT ORDER. Fung Fu alias Su Cheong was charged with disobeying an order of banishment.

He pleaded not quilty.

The following jury was empanelled viz. -R. Innes, C. da Silva, P. S. Jameson, F. F. Barretto, M. da Silva Guimares, P. H. Murray and H. J. M. de Carvalho. The Acting Attorney General (Mr A. G. Wise) said this was purely a question of identity. The prisoner was banished as from the 6th May, 1897, for five years. He returned to the Colony on 27th March this year. It was only a short time within the five years, but prisoner did not set up the defence of having made a mistake. He simply stated that he was not banished at that he had some hundred of sears on him and why was he to be convicted on that? Continuing, he said the warder threatened was Fung Fu. The jury returned a unanimous verdict of guilty, and His Lordship passed sentence of twelve months' hard labour.

COUNTERFEIT COIN CASÉ. Li Kung Cheeng was charged with selfing, attering and having in his possession counterfeit silver coin. Prisoner pleaded not guilty, and the same jury was retained. The Acting Attorney General said an informer was sent to the prisoner with a marked coin and obtained 16 counterfeit coins, the face value of which was 99 cents. and for these he paid 50 cents. When the transaction was completed, the constable who had sent the informer appeared on the scene, and the prisoner bolted. The informer joined in the chase, and prisoner dropped his money. The informer picked up thirteen pieces of counterfeit money and handed them to the constable. When the constable caught the prisoner he searched him, and found the marked coins in his possession.

Evidence was led. The jury returned a verdiet of guilty or two counts, and prisoner was sent to gaol for five years with hard labour. INDECENT ASSAULT.

Cheng Chau was charged with committing an indecent assault on a married woman 17 years of age. He pleaded not guilty.

The following jury was empanelled, viz. F. Esram, J. T. de Souza, G. F. da Roza, J. Ross, A. Mill, J. A. da C. V. Ribeiro and L. A. Musso.

The jury returned a verdict of guilty and His Lordship passed sentence of three years' imprisonment with hard labour.

AN UNSENTIMENTAL JOUR-NEY IN JAPAN.

Being betracts from a bundle of trivialities picked up in Japan.

The goodfolks of Atami are the the proud and happy possesser of a unique sort of passengers between that place and Ulawara. The carriages, somewhat larger than a good sized band-hox, run upon wheels, even smaller than the Company's dividends, along a very much up and down track, about as wide as a lady's sash ribbon, The motive power is supplied by hardworks ed coolies, who push the carriages up many pretty steep gradients, and when they reach the top (a painting and perspiring crowd) jump on the the footboards and let the bandboxes rush down the opposite decline very much at their own sweet will, at a pace apt to produce a slightly creepy sort of sensation along the spine, not quite compatible with a perfectly calm enjoyment of the surrounding scenery, which in many places is well worth taking a note of. The coolies on the footboards, when the course is downhill, watch the passengers with considerable interest, and if they can detect the slightest indication of funk their happiness is complete. The carriages are made to follow each other in very close order with, apparently, the object of making sure that, should a mishap occur to the first, the others following may have a chance of sharing in the accident, with perfect impartiality. PROTECTION OF MISSIONS, MISSIONARIES AND

CONVERTS. A Double-Edged Decree. Perino, April 8. The Imperial Government always wishes to protect its subjects and has been ever anxious to attain this object. We look upon both the ordinary people and the converts in the same light and we always display our impartiality towards them, and have never failed to do our best to bring to our subjects the blessings of peace, so that they might enjoy their lives. Thus we have several times commanded the Viceroys and Governors of the provinces to look after the people so as to keep them at easu and not allow anyone to cause trouble be tween the people and the followers of the foreign religions. Yesterday we received a memorial from Hei-Liang, the Governor of Honan, regarding the disturbance at Piyang-hsien, where missions have lately been burnt and converts murdered. With regard to this matter we have niready issued decrees to arrest and punish the criminals. But we feel that even though we punish then severely after the disturbanco takes place, it is not so good as to check such disturbances beforehand. Since Western people first came to our countrams seem always to reach their desti- Empress Downger and her supporters, the try more than two hundred years have elapsed. With the intention of preaching virtue to our people missionaries have travelled from their homes as far as China through occans from afar, and they have borne many burdships to do so. Moreover, they are benevolently engaged in healing the sick with their medical science gratis, to aid the poor, poverty stricken people. They are all solf-sacrificing and only desire to do good to others. There is no reason to ENTIRELY NEW PROGRAMME. 100 doubt the missionaries or to hate them; but still there are many instances of hatred and trouble against them. Even though we have issued stringent decrees warning all against causing such disturthe disposal of all this surplus happiness, achieved in their effort to exterminate the bances, yet obstinate men do not obey us, and ignorant people do not heed our most strictly worded decrees. There must surely be some reason for this. After due investigation we are driven to the bemites very little smaller than themselves, Powers realize that Almighty God is going lief that all this trouble has been caused by carrying then pickback from morn to eve | to punish the Manchus for their crimes of fraudulent practises. That is to say some wicked people join the foreign religions and under the pretext of being converts behave badly in the districts and enter into litigation with the other people, and if they other countries, not so handicapped, while over the long suffering, oppressed and en- could not gain in litigation they go to the missionaries for assistance. Then the missionaries on hearing of these things, not being contented with the result, go to left bare to the sun's rays and wobbled ment be repeated. The Christian World the local officials on behalf of these false converts, and in this way the HONGKONG RIFLE ASSOCIATION. local officials fall into had terms with the missionaries. Sometimes the local officials are not able to decide the cases in an imof converts, and consequently the local people grow to hate the converts indiscriminstely and then gather together and often bring in the wicked brigands of the country side to make matters more serious, and these squabbles grow into great distur-A MEMBER OF THE LEAGUE bances, till at last we are often obliged to punish so many people that it becomes really serious indeed. Thus we cannot easily root out the hatred of the common people against the converts. The E. and A. S.S. Co.'s s s. Guthric left A woman that is well, in perfect health, is a rarity. The majority of women have some ailment-some disorder of which to complain. They are weak, 'all-tired-out,' broken down, the roses have vanished from their cheeks, the smile from face, the cheerfulness from the voice. They are peaked, pale and puny. The ruby hips are purplish or blanched, the sparkling eye is The C. N. Co.'s s.s. Taigean from Kobe, dimmed and the bewitching charms of youth are faded. This all due to ill-health. Why women should be so unhealthful, space will not permit of discussion here. But it is a fact. Their systems are debilitated, all-run-down and need toping up. Mrs H. G. Sherboooke The stimulating effects of a tonic and tissue builder are required.
